

May 20-21, 1966

Stanford

The New Student-
Pot AND/OR Politics ~~✂~~

SPONSORED BY

Stanford Committee for a Free University

THE NEW STUDENT: POT AND/OR POLITICS
May 20-21, 1966
Stanford University

Friday, 4.15 p.m., Dinkelspiel

PAUL GOODMAN

"Radical Education in a Time of Crisis"

Saturday, 10:30-12, Tresidder 281

REVOLUTION WITHOUT POLITICS -- SEX

Jim Sayre, Stanford Sexual Rights Forum
Maurice Osborne, director Stanford Health Service
Max Levin, Institute for the Study of Human Problems
Jon Roise, editor Stanford Daily

1:00-2:30, Tresidder 282

REVOLUTION WITHOUT POLITICS -- PSYCHEDELICS

Victor Lovell, Counselling and Testing
Jack Shelton, Research Associate VA Hospital
Mike Miller, instructor in creative writing

2:45 - 4:15, Tresidder 274, 275

STUDIES OF RADICALS: OBSERVERS AND THE OBSERVED

Joseph Katz, Institute for the Study of Human Problems
Philip Rhineland, professor of philosophy and humanities
Dennis Sweeney, former SNCC field secretary
Dave Harris, student body president-elect
Al Staton, Stanford Committee for Peace in Vietnam

4:30-6, Tresidder 274, 275

POLITICS WITHOUT IDEOLOGY?

Hal Draper, Independent Socialist
Arnold Rogow, professor of political science
Jeff Wright, grad student political science

A Free University in a Free Society