

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BAIL FUND

An appeal is made to interested people who feel compassion for those who have taken a militant stand and require bail.

A bail pool is being formed; those who wish to contribute or pledge a sum of money to be called for when needed are urgently requested to send their names, telephone numbers, and addresses to one of the following:

Vic Lovell, 55 Homer Lane, Menlo Park 854-3551, or Jay Saunders 1017 Fulton, Palo Alto 328-1144.

Anyone interested in spreading awareness of the Stanford educational system (as part of the establishment's way of controlling people) and in trying to make students more politically aware through discussion groups in dorms, contact me (through ex. 4341).

Jeff Browning
2510 Emerson, Palo Alto

Friday, Jan. 26th

Mike James and Junebug Boykin from JOIN and the newly formed National Community Union in Chicago will speak at 4:15 in Tresidder 274. Mike will discuss the formation of a national network of radicals and the role of students in the movement. Junebug will talk on the political potentialities of the white working-class, from a new perspective for Stanford, that of a member of the white working class.

Monday, Jan. 29th

Karen Koonan (veteran of Mississippi, member of the Stop the Draft Week steering committee, and recently returned from Cambodia) will speak at 7:00 in Roble. She was on her way to Hanoi but was prevented from completing her trip because of increased U.S. bombing raids. While in Cambodia, Karen spoke to officials from North Vietnam and the National Liberation Front. She will discuss her trip with emphasis on women's participation in the struggle and the particular problems that that raises. She will relate these questions to women's participation in the American, radical movement.

The Community of the Left-Free University Office will serve as a center to find speakers and discussion leaders for any dorm group, off campus group, bunch of professors, people in the surrounding community, church group, etc., who wants a speaker or discussion leader on anything such as Resistance, Race relations, Black Power, Radical education, Maoism or topics of any of the Free University seminars.
