

HELL NO! NOBODY GOES!

Close the Oakland Induction Center

Tuesday, October 17

SIT-IN: People who plan to arrive early and sit down when told to leave or when the induction center tries to open will be staying in Oakland overnight. They will be housed in Fruitdale United Church of Christ (Fruitdale and E. 16th.)

OTHER OBSTRUCTION: There will <sup>be a</sup> well-monitored, mobile demonstration with the aim of surrounding the induction center and blocking busses. The vast majority of the demonstrators will be participating in the obstruction. Such activity risks arrest or police confrontation, but the plans are to minimize arrests and avoid violence.

People from campuses throughout the bay area are participating.

To participate in the mobile obstruction or in the support demonstration at the Oakland Draft Board (a few blocks from the induction center), people should report to El Camino park at 4:45 am Tuesday morning. (The park is across El Camino Real from the Stanford Shopping Center.) There will be chartered busses (20 round trip) leaving at 5:00.

To buy bus tickets to get further information, come to our table in White Plaza Monday, October 16.

For information, call 325-7604.

Wednesday-Friday essentially the same things will happen as on Tuesday.

Tuesday and Wednesday there will be rallies in White Plaza to report on activities in Oakland.
