

THE WAR CONTINUES

---

participate IN real elections

MONDAY, NOON, WHITE PLAZA AREA

THE SAN FRANCISCO MIME TROUPE

MONDAY, 8 P.M., CUBBERLY

FILMS: "Hanoi, Tuesday the 13th"
"No-Game" (a film about last fall's demonstration at the Pentagon)

PANEL AND DISCUSSION:

Jeff Hatch, Committee for a New Democratic Politics
Dave Ransom, Peace and Freedom Party congressional candidate
And other illustrious critics from different perspectives

TUESDAY, NOON, WHITE PLAZA

RALLY: Speakers parodying the candidates, and discussion of Stanford's involvement in the war and what we can do about it.

MARCH: With the infamous King Cong Guerilla Band to....

FESTIVITIES AND SIT-DOWN:

Outside of the Applied Electronics Laboratory, site of classified military research applied in Vietnam.

TUESDAY NIGHT

THE ELECTORAL WAKE:

Gather at 7 PM on the Palm Drive Oval with JOAN BAEZ
and other communal folk for a candle-light procession to the polls and to Lytton Plaza.

ELECTION NIGHT HEADQUARTERS OF THE PEOPLE: LYTTON PLAZA

— A few speakers to express our disgust with the elections and with the war which they help perpetuate.

--Festivities to express our commitment to a community based on human values. BANDS GALORE