$ 1,405,000

3. The number of Ph.D's awarded to students listing any of the above (or oth. STL personell) as advisors compared to the total number of Ph.D's awarded in Electrical Engineering leads one to believe that a Ph.D from STL is unusually expensive.

4/20

	STL	EE
1962	1 out of	29
1963	2 out of	37
1964	0 out of	26
1966	1 out of	42

(other data not available).

4. Added note:

57% of these research contracts goes to the University for salaries in other departments - (look before you leap.)
