

Harvard University

The Harvard chapter of the Students for a Democratic Society, which has just liberated the administration building here, support you unconditionally.
Right on!

University of Pennsylvania demonstrators:

Right on, brothers and sisters! We are in solidarity with you. We recently rid the campus of all CBW, counterinsurgency, and other war-related research as a result of our six-day sit-in. May you be as successful.

We support your demands and your actions unconditionally.

University of California at Berkeley--Radical Student Union:

The Radical Student Union of UC-Berkeley and certain faculty will have a rally and demonstration this Thursday against CBW and war research on the Berkeley campus.

We support all your demands and actions. We will be in solidarity with Stanford.
