

AGENDA, A3M MEETING

MONDAY, MAY 5

- A. Four short talks, informational and inspirational.
- (1) Why Encina?
 - (2) Analysis of Academic Senate action, or lack thereof.
 - (3) The status of the injunction, and action of the enjoined.
 - (4) The possibility of AFT strike.
- B. Division into affinity groups, and formation of new groups, for one hour of affinity group discussion.
- C. Short reports (1½ minutes each) from affinity group chairmen on the majority and minority feeling within their groups as to where the Movement is, and where it needs to go.
- D. Plans for action through Friday.
- Building the Movement.
 - Response to Senate.
 - Response to injunction.
 - Affinity group actions (mill-in, phone-in, etc.)
 - Approach to SRI employees.
 - Approach to trustees.
 - Education programs.
 - Founding an A3M headquarters, or tent city.
 - Setting next general meeting.
 - Others.
- E. Preliminary discussion (if time allows) of questions to be decided at next general meeting.
- Voting procedure.
 - Organization of coordinating committee.
 - Do we want to call for entire Bay Area community participation (Panthers, Third World, et al) in some form of mass meeting and/or action next week?
 - Other topics.