

"TWENTY-NINE SOULS IN SEARCH OF AN IDEOLOGY"

February 21, 1969

by Joseph Heller

I Room

II Trustees

III Introduction

IV Wealth and Power

V The University and Local Affairs

possible intermission

VI The University and the Student

- 1) Two (maybe just one) personal views)
- 2) On our education
- 3) Behavioralism: an example
- 4) The mentality of education
- 5) 2, continued

intermission

VII Foreign Policy

- 1) US Foreign Policy: Our Reaction
- 2) The economics of US Foreign Policy
- 3) Vietnam--2 years
- 4) Stanford's "contribution" to US Foreign Policy

possible intermission

VIII What we must do

- 1) Academic freedom
- 2) Rational dialogus, respect, and confrontation
- 3) Surrender

IX Individual Statements

end of judicial hearing

X: Fitzer's office: Support BSU demands!!

**** **** **** ****

cuisine by Miss Virginia Linsley

labor donated