

Songs of the Hard Corps

DILLINGHAM (to "Do Remember Me" or "Done Stayed Around")

CHORUS

Dillingham, on Stanford Land, it ain't for you and me
Dillingham, on Stanford Land, it ain't alright with me
Dillingham, on Stanford Land, by Alhouse realty
And its climbing clear up to the sky

Once there were horses grazing on that land
Grazing on that land--but now ther're traffic jams
Once there were horses grazing on that land
But now we've got Dillingham

chorus

Then came Mr. Terman--a Brilliant engineer
Brilliant engineer and heartless profiteer
Then came Mr. Terman--a brilliant engineer
And he bought the defense industry

chorus

Now the park is blooming with dividends to spare
Dividends to spare, They want to keep them there
Now the park is blooming with dividends to spare
So now they've got Palo Alto Square

chorus

Citizens awaken; this tower mustn't rise
This tower mustn't rise--we've got to organize Citizens awaken; this tower mustn't be
Make our county clean and clear and free
